CONDITIONS OF USE

1. I acknowledge that the digital document on loan (hereafter "the Document") through Polytechnique's Interlibrary Loan service is protected by the Copyright Act (R.S.C., 1985, c. C-42), and I agree to respect all conditions pertaining to it, in particular:
 - 1. NOT TO REPRODUCE MORE THAN ONE (1) PAPER COPY OF THE DOCUMENT;
 - 2. NOT TO COMMUNICATE THE DOCUMENT TO ANY OTHER PERSON.
2. I acknowledge that the Document will be accessible for consultation for a period not exceeding five (5) business days following the date it is first viewed.
3. I agree to use the Document and, if applicable, its print copy (one single copy permitted) for the sole purpose of research or private study, and I acknowledge that any other use may require the authorization of the copyright holder.
4. I acknowledge that infringement of copyright can lead to civil and criminal proceedings.
5. I agree to hold Polytechnique, its officers, administrators, management, representatives, staff and/or assigns, harmless against any action, claim, damage, injury or loss resulting from my use of the Document should it not comply with these conditions, the Copyright Act or any other applicable legislation.

Note for Polytechnique Montréal teaching staff :

Under Polytechnique's agreement with Copibec, the Société québécoise de gestion collective des droits de reproduction, Polytechnique teaching staff can deposit on Moodle content borrowed by ILL such as excerpts from books, newspaper or periodical articles, photos or illustrations. Polytechnique teaching staff must comply with Copibec's licence and complete the Request for Reproduction Rights form for each reproduced document.

Polytechnique teaching staff is invited to visit the Editor Support pages in Moodle for guidelines on sharing electronic documents with students and to download the Request for Reproduction Rights form. (See Guidelines for using electronic resources in the Moodle environment, under Documentation.)
